What is the purpose of using images and sounds of these child(ren)/myself?

Kids Alive International USA would like to use photographs, video, etc. of children and/or yourself in promotional materials like pamphlets, brochures, recruiting videos, web sites, Kids Alive newsletters, etc. to raise funds to care for more needy children.

Who is included in this release?

We are asking for permission to use the photograph/video/sound/stories taken of the child(ren), staff, facilities and anything/anyone relating to the above-referenced Service Team that you are submitting to Kids Alive USA.

We typically do not publish any names of the children in our fields with the photographs used by Kids Alive International USA, and we ask that all Kids Alive Service Teams not publish actual names of children or staff in our fields on your web site, printed publications or media presentations. Should we choose to print your story or publish your photo, we may choose to include your name as a Kids Alive Service Team Member.

How long will this permission be valid?

There would be no time limit and the photos/video/sound/stories would become the property of Kids Alive International USA.
